Cap from India.

Mrs. J. C. Dockery received today a beautiful cap from Omer L. Henry, from Calcutta, India. Mr. Henry noticed in the Post-Dispatch some weeks ago of the birth of little Betsey Sairfax Dockery, and so sent the little lady this cap. The cap was made by a Hindoo woman, who can neither read nor write, and who made it from a pattern she saw in the Ladies' Home Journal.

On the Job.

Some of the phone operators of the Sou. Bell system belong to the union, and so have gone out in obedience to the orders to strike. The central at Rockingham is not affected, as none of the operators belong to the union. The local clever operators (and for quickness and pleasantness we hold them second to none) are Mrs. Jim Threadgill, Miss Nettie Poplin, Miss Julia McCollum, Miss Mamie Currie, Miss Maude Kendall and Miss Francis Dunn.

Mrs. Minnie Miles Dead.

Her friends in the city and county will learn with keen regret of the death at Greenville, S. C., Tuesday of Mrs. H. M. Miles, of fever. The remains were brought here Wednesday night. The funeral will be conducted from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Biggs, this (Thursday) afternoon at four o'clock, with interment at Eastside. Mrs. Miles had been married eleven years, and as Miss Minnie Eggs was very dear to her friends.

Mr. E. B. Terry was critically ill the latter part of last week, but is now better. Two nurses, Misses Scholls and Ingram, of Hamlet, are attending him. He is troubled with his heart. His brother, R. B., from Laurens, came to see him from Friday to Monday, and John and Harvey came from Chapel Hill from Friday to Monday. Harvey will return from Chapel Hill Saturday, and John the first of next week. Mrs. William Hannon, a cousin of Charlotte, came to see him last Friday, and is now visiting Mrs. W. A. Biggs. The friends of Mr. Terry sincerely hope he will soon regain his strength; his physicians say he must remain indoors for several weeks at least.
